

We had a burglary reported on Cortland Dr in Edenmoor yesterday. Apparently it happened between the time the homeowners left for work and approximately 11:30 AM. The suspects forced open the front door and stole two plasma televisions. Please be mindful of suspicious people, especially those who may be knocking on doors and ringing doorbells during the day.