

Received from the Charlotte-Mecklinberg Police Department via Sgt. Eric Brown, Lancaster County Sheriff's Office.

We have had 3 Robberies from Person in the University City Division in the last two weeks. The suspects are contacting the victims through "Craigslist" and offering to buy their iPad for an amount of money well above what the victim's originally paid for the iPad. The suspect's suggest an apartment complex in the University City Division to meet to make the exchange and then rob the victims. Please be careful if you respond to such an ad. If you have information regarding these incidents please call 911 or Crimestoppers and report this information.
